GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

WHEAT TAKES AN UPWARD JUMP-A GAIN IN CORN-SLOW ADVANCE IN PROVISIONS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE BEBALD.] CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. SI, 1891.—Wheat took a jump to-day and went over the dollar mark. Corn made a gain of big. a *ige. and provisions likewise advanced in prices, although with appearant reluctance.

Not since the latter days of August have the bulls in wheat had the market at their foot and the shorts on the run in such style as during this day's session. The mar-ket was quite beyond individual control and the brokers went with the tide. The official assurance of the Washington Signal Service office that a "genuine, truly cold wave" was apreading from the Northwest made the scene in the wheat pit at the start a wild acramble for a portion of the seasty officings. Nay opened at 673cc and the scramble was intense from the start. The price was bid up steadily to $1 005c, the closing price being $1.005c.

The receipts of corn were less than the previous day's estimate, and weather was unfavorable to any improvement in the grading. These were the motives for the market opening about $6c. higher than it had closed yesteday, and the advance in wheat sumplied the free which relief the temperature to $556c.

The School of the whole relief the temperature of $556c.

$25c. asllers. went with the tide. The official assurance of the Wash-

Soc. sellers.

The lowest price for pork was made at the opening, and the price at the close was at the highest point of the day and loc. higher then at the end of the day and loc. higher then at the end of the seller of the s
